Help Wanted— For Volunteers

Two enterprises currently need the attention of men or women who are willing to give a small part of their spare time.

The annual Red Cross drive will begin in Orange county about March 1. Mrs. T. W. Clark, of Stanton, who is responsible for donations from this part of the county, is anxious that a corps of workers be organized to solicit in this area and make as good a showing as possible. If eight or ten persons will volunteer, the house to house campaign can be put over in a negligible amount of individual time.

Volunteers in this area are asked to call Mrs. Wheeler at the Red Cross office in Anaheim, telephone number 2065.

The Rev. W. D. Howard has stated that there is a need for an organized group of women who will volunteer to care for the clothing which is on hand to be used in any future emergencies. Many garments were contributed to the Spratte family's need which were not used. These can be sorted into approximate size and age groups after a missing button or rip and tear has been mended, and be ready in case of a similar community disaster.

Any local women's club which wishes to undertake this worthwhile project may contact Mr. Howard at Anaheim 60457.

This and That— Here and There

CENTRAL FEED'S SPECIAL

Come Friday, February 17, Central feed store will be saying, "This is the day we give baby chix away!" K. D. Tillema, genial proprietor, has cooked up a scheme and for this day only, he will give ten baby chicks away with the purchase of one dollar or more worth of merchandise, beginning at 10 a.m. as long as the supply lasts.

Whether it be a hundred dollars or only one lonely "buck," each patron will be entitled to 10 chix. Children must be accompanied by their parents, and all are asked to bring their own containers.

It's a good time to think about grass seeds, or feeds, or dairy supplies or anything you need. "Dick" says to come on in. He expects to have ready a packaged bag of feed plus a feeder and drinking cup, to make your shopping easier, for the price of $1.

HERE AGAIN, GONE AGAIN

The last time we saw him in Cypress was in November, 1948. "Woody," who travels thousands of miles by cart and burro, has been up and down the San Joaquin valley since then, but covered only about 5 or 6,000 miles. On May 9 last year his trick mule, whose name is Tombstone but is dubbed "Blue" for short, kicked his master. "Woody" suffered a broken hip and was hospitalized for three months.

INTERESTING TRIO above is one of the features on program to be presented next Friday night at eight o'clock in the Cypress school auditorium. The public is invited to witness a show being prepared by teen-agers showing techniques developed during gymnasium classes held the past few weeks. Posing above in a balancing act are Stanley Spicer and Frank Ferreira, on the left and right respectively, with Al Alponte pyramiding above.

Rains and Bad Weather Hold Up Home Construction for Sprattes

Preparation of new living quarters for Mr. and Mrs. Neal Spratte and their seven children has been seriously delayed due to bad conditions resulting from the recent rains.

The family, whose home burned to the ground recently, has taken these adverses in its stride, however, and maintains a spirit of cheerfulness, despite separation of its members. Mr. and Mrs. Spratte have been staying in Hawaiian Gardens and the children are still being cared for by neighbors in the vicinity of their old home on Graham street.

One house has been moved on to the property the family is purchasing at 8391 Moody street. The second one is still to be moved in. The process of digging a well has also been hampered by the freshets which have been prevalent in southern California the past week.

Mrs. Spratte has busied herself sorting over the contributions which came from voluntary donors following the tragedy. An unbelievable number of clothing articles and items for housekeeping are stored in spare places at the Church of the Nazarene awaiting the opportunity to be used.

Cash donations included $100 from the Salvation Army, $41 from the sanitarium in Los Alamitos, and gifts of $15 from the Cypress Community club and $10, Junior Women's club, for a total amount of $317.

Other names of the contributors as they appear on the list kept with the money in the safe at the Cypress Hardware store are as follows: Siples, Souza, M & H market, D. C. Norland, Joan Carson, Katherine Jackson, F. Russell, Crume, Derbyhire, Huge LaRue, Henry Schelling, J. E. Smith, Jennings, Laughman, Earl Essex, Fred Mackay, Clark Mgf. company, Cypress Electric, Lyman McFall, Philip McLaughlin, West, Mrs. Ray Edwards, D. L. Kelley, R. W. Jones, Cypress Beverage, and Cypress Hardware.

A substantial cash amount was also realized from the sale of goods taken to the Cypress auction yard. Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Harris, a sum of $34.25 was turned into the fund.

BUSINESS GROWING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Clements have been quietly developing their business on their property at 4891 Lincoln avenue. Now named "Clem's Hatchery," they are improving the front along the right-of-way. As soon as weather permits a special display plot will allow them to place baby ducks and geese where prospective buyers can see them easily. Bad weather has held up this project to date this spring.

SKILLS EXHIBITED NEXT FRIDAY: BOYS AND GIRLS INVITE PUBLIC

Following many weeks of practice and perseverance, boys and girls in Cypress who have been undergoing a program of Calisthenics two nights a week have planned a public performance.

This will be held in the Cypress school auditorium next Friday evening, February 17, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

Acts performed by local youths will feature weight lifting, boxing, wrestling, challenge lifts, girl pyramids and tap dancing.

A. M. Dean, who inaugurated this training program for the young people, has announced that Mr. and Mrs. Orville Wertzbaugher will also be present and will entertain with a special number. Mary Ann recently won the lightweight lifting championship for women of California. Boxing exhibitions are the result of training given the boys by Keith Giles, former member of the Marine corps and a local resident. He has given much time and effort to develop this art among the boys.

There is no charge for admission on Friday night, Dean said. However, donations will not be refused. Any money received as a result of the show will be used by the group to buy much needed equipment to carry on their activities.

Burglars Enter Two Stores Here Tuesday Morning

Sheriff's deputies were seeking clues Tuesday morning after owners of two businesses in Cypress had reported their places had been entered during the night.

Some time between 2:15 and six o'clock, burglars broke into the cafe at 4604 Lincoln avenue through the rear door. Nothing was taken, since the cash receipts were well hidden. Roy Bruce, sheriff's deputy, said the only clue is that the prowler was possibly wearing corduroys.

The liquor store at 5531 Lincoln avenue was looted for the second time in recent weeks. Entry was made by removing the transom window over the front door.

About $60 worth of liquor was stolen, along with $87 in cash plus some other valuables, reports indicated.

Offered Chance On Radio; David Davis Refuses

At the tender age of five, little David Davis has turned down a radio contract!

His mother, Mrs. Jeff Davis, 9181 south Walker avenue, explains the circumstances which led to their son's opportunity. Over a year ago studios made photographs of both David and his little sister Frances, age four.

Last week a call came from Hollywood for David to come to a radio show rehearsal. Officials had been attracted by the same photo, which they had somehow discovered.

Because of difficulty in getting to Hollywood for Tuesday night rehearsals at seven and for the Saturday morning show at nine o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Davis decided to let the opportunity pass. Davis' working hours did not enable him to take time for the bi-weekly journey.

David is a student in the morning kindergarten class in the local elementary school.

P-T.A. Rounds Up Villains And Heroines

What promises to be one of the greatest "tear-jerkers" to ever be presented from the stage in the local school auditorium went into preliminary production at a meeting Wednesday night when volunteers began work on the "Gay 90's revue."

It's all in fun, and the mellerdrama entitled, "She was only the milkman's daughter, but she was the cream of the crop," will be only one of the features of the evening's performances Thursday and Friday nights, March 2 and 3.

There is still time for volunteers to do specialty acts or sing in the chorus. Call Mrs. Junker at Anaheim 60574 for further information.

ACCIDENT VICTIM HAS OPERATION; HOME ON HOLDER

R. G. Simonds, 9451 Holder road, has been in Community hospital in Long Beach following an operation on his foot last week.

Simonds was the victim of a tobogganing accident on a church outing about a month ago. In attempting to shield two youngsters from possible death, he steered the sled away from a tree. He saved all their lives but broke the bones in his foot.

An employee at Douglas, doctors are understood to have said that it will be at least six months before he will be able to walk again. Simonds has suffered considerable pain in the weeks since his injury.

THIS LITTLE PIG WENT FOR A RUN

A fugitive from his pen at the Raub home, 9471 Walker street, "Porky" Pig gave a trio of boys a merry chase Tuesday afternoon. Sympathetic friends of Mrs. Raub and her daughter Roberta, who were alone at the time, Nolan Blackman, Mickey Gouyd and Kenneth Ogle heroically pursued the porker, which led them back and forth between Orange, Walker and Grindlay and finally into the vacant lot on the north side of Lincoln avenue across from the school. A beautiful flying tackle, worthy of varsity football, accomplished the capture. Walter Beuck and Richard Collum had joined the chase somewhere along the line and were in on the imaginary "kill."

CAREFUL, POP!

VALENTINE'S DAY

Whether you're a youngster, an oldster or an "in-betweener" you needn't wait until Valentine's Day to let a certain someone know how fond you are of her (or him). But Valentine's Day does give you a good excuse (if you need one) to do it.

So, whether you're six or sixty, nine or ninety, don't forget February 14 and the affectionate little reminders to your sweetheart, wife or whoever it is that holds the center of your affections.—Calif. Commentator

I RISE TO REMARK
by John Phillips

Last week I wrote about the proposed and much publicized change in the rules. I was trying to call your attention to a curious phase of present-day Washington; the fact that many reports on the actions of Congress do not tell what actually took place here.

After I mailed that letter, I received my copy of "Not Merely Gossip," which is a supplement to "Human Events," previously mentioned, (and recommended) in this letter. Frank E. Hanighen, the commentator, was reporting the action on the rule change so much better than my last letter that I asked him to let me repeat it for you.

"You would never know it from the press," said Hanighen, on January 25, "but this last week has seen the Second Coming of Uncle Joe Cannon to the House of Representatives. Uncle Joe was the old party who, for many years, kept the House well disciplined by rules which enabled him as Speaker to determine whether any bill would be debated or passed. Back in 1910, a coalition finally overthrew his power, and Uncle Joe has been dead for years. Last year he came back—in spirit—in the person of that great 'liberal' Sam Rayburn, bosom pal of Harry Truman. In January, 1949, Sam 'liberalized' the rules so the 'reactionaries' in the Rules Committee could not keep 'liberal' legislation bottled up. The new rules permitted a committee chairman to get a bill on the calendar (with House approval) if the Rules Committee tries to do some 'bottling-up.'

Repeal Tried

"This week, Rayburn did his stuff again. A combination of Republicans and Southern Democrats tried to repeal the 'liberal' rule, but were foiled in their base design. Did that ensure consideration of the FEPC bill? Not so you could notice it. Sam, as Speaker, has the right to recognize any member he chooses. In the great tradition of Texas liberals, he chose not to recognize Mr. Lesinski who wanted to talk about the FEPC bill. And he discovered in himself a passionate interest in that orphan of Capitol Hill, Alaskan Statehood. Southern members devoted the rest of the day to that fascinating subject. It could be weeks before FEPC would get on the calendar again. In short, Uncle Joe Cannon rides again, under the label of 'liberal.' That's what all the fuss was about."

Any Bill

I tried last week to tell you that there has been a rule, before and since this "change"of a year ago, which would permit any bill to be brought out of a committee which the majority leadership wants to bring out. That rule is carefully "suspended" each week. I tried to tell you that the more important reason for the attempted change-back this year, to the former rule, was the threat of an indefinite number of hastily and sometimes poorly worked-out bills, which the rules committee has been holding up, the total money authorizations in which have at times reached as much as $9,000,000,000 cost to you folks, in taxes each year, above what you're paying now. I rise to remark again, it isn't always easy to tell from the reports what Congress is trying to do.

Ronald Garrison, senior patrol leader of the Cypress Boy Scouts, opened the last meeting at the VFW hall Feb. 3 at 7:30. There were eight new scouts: Mickey Scott, Ernest Scott, Donnie Appleby, Richard Hathcock, Clayton Leffler, Bert Washburn, Earling McKinzie and Norman Adams. Kenneth Valentine was added to the Beaver patrol, so now they have a full patrol.

There were 30 to 40 boys who attended the meeting. The scoutmaster, Frank Troutman, gave out three badges. They were to the senior patrol leader, Ronald Garrison; the quartermaster, Bob Troutman and Buddy Chambers, the scribe.

The scouts started a contest that will last about six months. The eight boys with the most points will go to Yosemite for a week. The scoutmaster made a chart and put a list of things on it so that the scouts could earn points to go to Yosemite. The boys are planning to go to Idylwilde February 11 or 18.

We hope their trip will be enjoyable for all of them.

Cub Scouts Host Families at Birthday Dinner

By Dianna Leverich, 6-A

The cubs of Cypress school celebrated February 2 with a dinner, which was called the blue and gold dinner. Each cub invited his family and the cubs were to bring a covered dish.

The food was put on a table, and then everyone that had come got in a line around the table, filled their plates and sat down and ate. When they were finished, the cubs had a display of things they were making at their meeting of the nicest things which they have been making in the past few months. Mrs. Wilson's den won the contest.

One of the interesting things in that den display were the rock collections. The prize was a model airplane. After the contest, the cub master gave out awards.

Pack meetings are held each month. All dens meet at this time. We hope to see more parents at the next pack meeting in March.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Huth, formerly of 5642 Saint Ann avenue, have opened a restaurant at 10202 Stanton avenue, and also live on the premises. He was employed in the paint department of the Long Beach Douglas plant. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Osborne and two children, Karen and John, live in Cypress.

Approved for issuance by the county board of supervisors last Friday was a permit to N. D. Ricks, Lincoln avenue west of Holder road, for a chicken ranch.

A motor scooter belonging to Bruce Perrine caught fire last Thursday evening about nine o'clock as it stood in front of the drugstore. Boys were able to put out the fire, but not before about $30 worth of damage was done to the machine.

Mrs. Ray Dye is visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood while Ray is on sea duty with the coast guard for a month. She made the trip down from Seattle on the bus. Their home at 5541 Saint Ann avenue was rented this week to Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Prince. He is employed at Douglas.

Girl Scouts Give Banquet— Invite Fathers

By Rosalie Miller, 6-A

About 30 fathers attended the father and daughter banquet on Friday, February 3, in the Cypress school utility room. Each girl brought a covered dish of some food.

After they had eaten there was a program given by the Girl Scouts. The first number was given by Troop 11, fifth grade. They said the Girl Scout laws in unison. Mable Gage, representing the seventh grade troop, did a tap dance. Next Kay and Martha Michael sang "Dear Evalina." Mrs. Michael accompanied them.

Then from the eighth grade Troop 13, Barbara Wallace and Colleen Phillips did a dance, Karen Seibert and Shirley Anderson sang for them. For the number the sixth grade Troop 14 sang, "Girl Scouts Together."

Then they had a needle threading contest. The winner was Mr. Sandborn, Betty Sandborn's father of our seventh grade. Then they played a question and answer game.

For the last game they played, "The noble duke of York." The girls were happy to have so many fathers.

Mrs. Roy Grisback has moved to Santa Ana. Her home in Cypress Acres has been rented to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Kelly and two boys, who recently returned from Texas.

Club Features Valentine Party With Pot Luck

Because their regular monthly meeting date falls on Tuesday, February 14 this year, members of the Cypress Woman's Community club will observe the occasion with a valentine party.

Meeting in the home of Mrs. Job J. Denni, 9512 south Juanita street, a pot luck luncheon will be served at 12:30. During the business meeting to follow, secret pals for the past year will be revealed, and new names will be drawn.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Denni are Mrs. Leo Smith and Mrs. Milam Williams.

Chamber of Commerce members who attended the dinner at Knott's last week of associated chambers were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noe, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. von Trotha, Mr. and Mrs. James Broadbelt, Elmer Corby, Dale Kroesen and Miss Beth Kroesen.

'Chit-Chat from The Teeners'

By Gloria McKinzie

These people who walk in dazes over Vance Newkirk, Ralph Mason, Duane Duncan, and Lewie Stevens! They have sure been bumping into people lately on the streets.

Those seen at Big Bear Lake Sunday having a simply marvelous time were Berta Slabaugh and Billy Schaeffler and Delores Slaybaugh and Harry Sexton.

Who's that cute dish-water blond boy that's seen often at Peggy Flynn's house?

Is A. S. still a man hater?

Is it true what we hear about Johnny Wright liking a gal initialed M.S.?

Betty Ann Murphy is visited quite often by L. S.

Those having a good time on their motor scooters nowadays are Ronnie and Donnie Mosby, Erling McKinzie, Rex Harsh, James Hedgecock, and Ross Mester. Seen riding with the boys usually are Kennon Laird, Norman Adams and Burt Washburn.

Lost by PoPo Slabaugh—One broken heart!

The wolf Nolan Blackman is still on the loose looking for a prospective female wolf.

A birthday party was given for Narcie Ferriera and Elaine Miranda last Saturday evening. The guests were Patsy Reeves, Colleen Philips, Roberta Raub, Cynthia Collins, Jean Houghton, Jimmy McLaughlin, Walt Beuck, Buddy Chambers, Micky Goyd, Wayde Martin, Nolan Blackman, Kaker Van Dyke, and Kenneth Ogle. The refreshments served were cake, rootbeer and ice cream. Everyone present had a very good time.

Lee's Cafe Is Sold to Cypress, Fullerton Men

Lee Stradley, proprietor of Lee's Cypress cafe, announced the sale of his property to Kenneth Hoyal, 122 Roslin, Fullerton, and Ray Graham, 5386 Bishop, Cypress.

There will be no change in name, announced the new owners, and Mrs. Graham will have charge of the kitchen activities.

Stradley was undecided about definite plans for the future, but it is known that he will go back to Iowa for an extended visit with relatives soon.

Management of the cafe changed hands February 2.

Otho Switzer has sat up on the edge of the bed a few times in the past few days, Mrs. Switzer reports. He may have company for a minute or so at a time, and appreciates the attention his friends give him.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walley visited last Sunday in Burbank in the home of her son and family, the Ernest Andersons.

Crowd Thrilled By Blind Bowlers

The SRO sign was out at the Buena Park Bowl Saturday night when an overflow crowd was thrilled by an exhibition of skill and courage put on by Bob Anderson and his blind bowlers. A five-man team from Blind Aid and Recreation Inc., tangled with the Buena Park Lions club keglers in a three-game exhibition match which was preceeded by a short exhibition between Anderson and Tommy Neer, who learned the terrible handicap of sightlessness by being blindfolded.

The almost uncanny skill with which the blind bowlers made splits brought spontaneous cheers from the crowd and kept the Lions humping to win by a small margin.

Using a guide rail developed by Anderson as their only mechanical aid, and "spotting" their spares by having the number of pins left called out to them, these sightless sportsmen proved what courage and diligence can do toward overcoming a seemingly hopeless handicap.

Bob Anderson, who has been blind for 16 years, is the founder and driving force behind Blind Aid and Recreation, Inc., a non-profit organization founded for and dedicated to the full life for the blind. Ingenious devices and unquenchable determination have given to hundreds of blind men and women such active pleasures as golf, dancing, baseball, horseback riding, hiking and fishing, as well as bowling.

Said In Cypress

That "Frosty" Lowrey used to drive a two-seated Model A Ford. He must have washed it or left it out in the rain too long and it shrank to a one-seated "hot rod" number. "Frosty" told our mother he's going to paint it yellow and sell it to Beth!!

That J. E. Stogdill, crossing guard at the schoolhouse says there's a world of difference in automobile drivers. When the street was half blocked off recently in order that the wet paint on the pavement could dry, the space was equal to one of the lanes on a four-lane highway. One woman almost wrecked her car—she didn't think she could make it through the space provided.

That if you are listening to "Home Town Happenings" over KFI on Sunday mornings at 8:45, you were rewarded recently for about the fourth time, when Kerwin Hoover again took an item from this here newspaper. With that kind of outside help, we may yet beat that old bug-a-boo, "where's Cypress?"

That when we heard the employees in the drugstore puzzling over why Stan Doerr would take home the biggest and best box of candy last Saturday, we got out the back files of the newspaper. Sure enough, it was Ruth and Stan's twenty-third wedding anniversary. Last year the fourth of February fell on Friday, which was also the day on which they were wed.

That three families in Cypress we know have inter-com systems and derive much pleasure from them, besides saving endless time and bother. They are the Rev. W. D. Howard, Earl Sartwell and "Frosty" Lowrey.

Gloria Mancebo, Edward Arbiso Join Hands in Wedding at Catholic Church

White stock, gladioli and chrysanthemums in large white jardinieres on white standards, interspersed with glowing candles in tall candelabra, made the background for the marriage of Miss Gloria Marie Mancebo and Edward Frank Arbiso in St. Pius V Catholic church on Feb. 4, 1950 at 10 o'clock in the morning. Rev. Frederick Kass officiated with the double ring ceremony, the first wedding to be held in the new church.

Sprays of flowers were tied with wide white ribbon on the ends of the first three pews occupied by the families of the bridal couple.

Mrs. Lawrence Smith presided at the organ and accompanied Miss Georgette Williams, who sang four numbers: "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother," and "Oh, Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

The bride, whose father, Anthony Mancebo, gave her in marriage, was striking in a white satin gown fashioned with a cathedral train. Pearl embroidery outlined her lace yoke. The peplum of the gown was lined with gold satin. A pearl encrusted bonnet with a sweetheart crown, tied with a large soft bow on one side, held the long veil. Pearl earrings matched the dress and bonnet trimming. She carried an arm bouquet of stephanotis, centered with orchids.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Mrs. John Borges of Artesia, matron-of-honor, who carried pink roses with her gown of peacock blue worn with a jacket; Misses Betty Lentz, Barbara Craveiro, Delores Cardin, Vanda Costa and Nancy Groff, whose taffeta gowns made identically with hoop skirts were respectively, in green, rose, begonia, turquoise blue and gold, blending in a flower garden effect before the background of white blossoms. Each wore a small hat which matched her dress, and carried pink carnations.

Philomina Batista and Dena Marie Lawrence were charming little flower girls in white satin and lace. They carried baskets of flower petals.

Small Norman Lourenco, nephew of the bride, dressed in a white suit with blue bow tie, carried the wedding rings on the white satin pillow.

John Borges was the best man. Philip and Richard Arbiso, brothers of the bridegroom, John Andre and Frank Ferreira of Cypress and Frank Batista of Westminster ,were the ushers.

Following the ceremony, the guests gathered for a wedding dinner at Knott's Berry Farm, where 130 adults and 20 children were served.

In the evening, a wedding ball took place at the I.D.E.S. hall in Artesia where 500 guests danced to the music of Bill Willeford's orchestra.

When the newly married pair left on their wedding trip to the Grand Canyon, the bride wore a suit of royal blue, with purse and shoes of black, a white hat and gloves.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Arbiso attended the Buena Park schools and were graduated from Fullerton High school in 1949. The bridegroom was a valued football player while in school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Arbiso, 6112 Western avenue.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mancebo, 5582 Orangethorpe Ave. She and her husband have lived in Buena Park all of their lives and have a multitude of friends who wish the best for them. They will make their home in an apartment on Western avenue.

DAVID THOMAS MARKS BIRTHDAY WITH THEATER PARTY

In honor of his eighth birthday, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas entertained for their son, David, Saturday afternoon. Several of his friends were invited to help him celebrate his eighth anniversary, which date was actually the next day, Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas took the boys and girls to a movie in Bellflower early in the afternoon. Sharing in this activity with the honored guest were Kenny Bell, Virginia and Donnie Holt, Lanae "Sugar" Parker, Mickey Parker, and Carol and "Sandy" De Polter.

Upon their arrival back at the Triangle drive-inn, David opened many gifts appropriate to his eight years, after which birthday cake and two kinds of ice cream were served. Each guest received a valentine favor with suckers. Children enjoying the latter part of the afternoon, in addition to those mentioned, were Terry Lee Parker, Mary Van Horn, Donnie Dixon and Charlee Arnold.

dividend checks which should be arriving from their National Life insurance policies will be interested in knowing that on Wednesday Postmaster Ruth Pugh reported No. 238 as having been received.

STRANGE COINCIDENCE

When Anaheim union high school students began to arrive home from school Friday afternoon the stage was beautifully set for a strange bit of by-play. Across the P.E. tracks just east of town was first noted a horse running at top speed, with mane and tail flying. Aboard were Robert Van Dyke and Chuck Bell. A few seconds later the panorama unfolded with Harry Sexton and Delores Slabaugh arriving on the scene by motor scooter. It is probably just a coincidence, but last but not least came the school bus. Who said, "Oh, get a horse?"

ESSEX KIN HERE

Mrs. Earl Essex and her cousin, Mrs. Pearl Rath, motored to San Diego on Friday to meet the former's brother, Lt. O. L. Logan, aboard the U.S.S. Randall and the latter's husband, Lt. Robert Rath.

The women enjoyed lunch and dinner aboard the two ships, before the group left for home. Lt. Logan, en route to San Francisco, was able to visit with his sister until Sunday morning. He left at four o'clock.

LILLIE SCORES TWENTY-SIX BUT CYPRESS LOSES

Even though Hal Lillie dumped in 26 points Tuesday night for the Cypress Mercnant cagers, Leavitt Ford had too much power and nipped the locals 52 to 45 in the Anaheim league.

Cypress trailed the Anaheim team 26-23 at the half.

Other scoring for the local aggregation was Wrinkler, six points; Hoyt, five; Buckley and Mene, four.

Cypress will play a make-up game with Alpha Beta Tuesday night.

Circus Party is Fun for Youngsters

A circus party for youngsters or teenagers, with refreshments served buffet style, is one of the easiest and most successful of all party patterns. Mounted cutouts of circus animals and clowns make gay table decorations and circus eats means lots of hot dogs, popcorn, animal crackers and sparkling lemonade.

The lemonade can be prepared in a jiffy with the new Real Gold concentrated lemonade base that comes in convenient small-sized cans, and all you have to do is add water. Packed by the citrus growers themselves and homogenized to give you dependable fresh fruit flavor without any of the bother of squeezing and straining, canned lemonade base is economical, too, because there's no waste. Just pour a small can of Real Gold lemonade base into a quart bottle or pitcher, add ice, fill to the brim with water and serve.

Triangle Ties for Second With White Elephant Cafe in Bowling

MERCHANT NO. 1 TEAM MOVES INTO SECOND PLACE

Bowling Walt's meats Wednesday night at Buena Park, Dotty O'Neal hit a 192 which was one of the major factors in the Triangle drive-in's 2 to 1 win which moved them into a tie for second place in the Women's handicap league.

Zedith Hathcock scored a 144 in one of her games to keep the locals in the running.

Merchants No. 2 Wins

Buena Park's Kiwanis club was the victim of the fourth place Cypress Merchant No. 2 team, as they picked up three points while dropping one. Salty Falls led the local group by hitting a 213 single game and turning in a 557 series. Tommy Neer followed Falls with a 534 series.

No. 1 Team Moves Up

A split of 2 to 2 with Bob's market was the best the Merchant No. 1 team could do this week, but that was enough to move them from third to second place in the league standings. Foster Noe had high single game of 212, and turned in a 500-plus series. Dick Hathcock had a series of 482.

Want to Know Something? Ask Mrs. King, Lib'n

More and more patrons in this area are depending on their library to seek information on special questions, Mrs. King, local librarian, said this week.

The library's special request loans are quite large for the percentage of people who borrow here. That is what makes the selection in a small library a little better than it is in a larger library, Mrs. King said, because the books are actually the ones people want to read. That is the advantage available to every person who wants to borrow books locally.

The book truck from the county is expected about Feb. 17, when a new supply will be available to borrowers. There is hardly a month passes but what special requests number 20 or 25.

Mrs. King is the fountain-head for all kinds of information. Many come to her who are out of work for suggestions and information on civil service positions. She is able to procure civil service books for study on any type of examinations. Most post offices keep memos of civil service examinations posted on their bulletin boards.

Mrs. King has only one complaint to register. Cypress has entirely outgrown its library quarters, and books are piled and stacked in every available space.
